Baskervill Awarded Full-Service Contract with VCU

RICHMOND, Va. (January 22, 2010) – Baskervill has been awarded a full-service architecture and engineering term contract with Virginia Commonwealth University for 2010-2015. More than 100 firms competed for the available contracts.

Baskervill has worked with VCU for more than 50 years. Recent projects include the Brandcenter, the newly converted 500 Academic Centre and programming for the new Harris Hall Student Services Center. Baskervill also holds an interior design contract with the university.

“VCU is an integral aspect of Richmond’s landscape, and we’re thrilled to continue our relationship with the university to assist its architectural design,” said Brent Farmer, chairman. “As we expand our focus on higher education, VCU will remain one of our top clients in this area.”

Baskervill, an international, award-winning, full-service architectural, engineering, interior design and sustainable design firm, delivers world-class services to a diverse client base that ranges from hospitality, government, education, corporate, healthcare, retail, financial and industrial institutions to Fortune 500 companies. Founded in 1897 and headquartered in Richmond, Virginia, Baskervill offers a rich history of ingenuity, integrity and technical expertise that has made them a premiere service provider across the country and around the world.
